Beyond the "Dirty Pages" of the Prayer Book

If you hold a Book of Common Prayer up by its spine, it's easy to spot the "dirty" pages used most often, Eucharistic Rites 1 and 2. Important as those portions are, the BCP contains much, much more. The "Beyond the Dirty Pages" of the Prayer Book class today, from 10:15 a.m. to 10:50 a.m. in Room 201. Come and join the Rev. Dr. Marcia King as we discuss the origins of the Prayer Book, what it contains, and how you can use it in your daily life, now through July 14.

Solar Panel Update

We are excited at the news that our solar panels are being installed! You may see the construction crew working if you come through the Wyatt Courtyard. If you would like to make a gift to help finalize fundraising for this project, please get in touch with Lee Watanabe in the office, or visit www.stpetersparish.org/creationcare to read more and give online.

"Passion for Creation" Study

Study from home! Creation Care Fellow Sarah Flint will be leading a weekly, early morning (7:00 a.m. - before you're busy!) class to explore the first ten sermons in Passion for Creation, Matthew Fox's translation and commentary on texts of sermons by Meister Eckhart, the noted 14th-century Dominican priest and mystic. The study happens on Wednesdays now through September 4. Each week will stand alone, but will be more meaningful when accompanied by the relevant reading. The book is available on Amazon in paperback or on Kindle. Register for the Zoom link and reading schedule by scanning the QR code. For questions email sflint@stpetersparish.org.

Farewell to Fr. Joe on July 21

Say a warm "farewell" to Fr. Joe on his last Sunday, July 21 between the 9:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. services. We will have special refreshments and a sending moment. To wish Fr. Joe well in this next chapter of ministry, please visit www.stpetersparish.org/farewell or contact Rachel Davis at rdavis@stpetersparish.org to learn more.
