Women in the New Testament

Join the Reverend Dr. Marcia King as we discuss the role of women in the New Testament, particularly Mary of Bethany, Mary Magdalene, and Mary, the Mother of Christ. Classes will meet on Sundays, now through October 6 (extended date) from 10:15 a.m. to 10:50 a.m. in Room 201.

Have You Signed Up for a Listening Session?

The Parish Engagement Listening Sessions are open and we want your contribution to the dialogue! These small group listening sessions are a great opportunity to have your voice heard on the future of our Parish. An experienced outside facilitator will manage the discussion. The results and key takeaways will be presented to the Parish shortly after completing all sessions. You can sign up for the listening sessions by scanning the QR code here or by visiting stpetersparish.org/sessions. Please select a time to participate, noting that some sessions have childcare available. If you have questions, please contact the office.

Nourish: Wednesday Night

A Case for Love Screening

On Wednesday, October 2 we will continue to feature "A Case for Love" a documentary inspired by Presiding Bishop Michael Curry's message of love. Join the Daughters of the King, who are hosting this screening, and learn more about their ministry. To register for dinner at 6:00 p.m., please visit www.stpetersparish.org/nourish and sign up by the Monday prior at 4:00 p.m.

Season of Creation

Happy Season of Creation! Ecumenical Patriarch Dimitrios started the Season of Creation in 1989. It was endorsed by Pope Francis in 2015, and has since spread throughout many communities of faith. The Season runs from September 1 and continues until October 4, the Feast Day of St. Francis.

Whales to Worms, St. Francis Weekend

On St. Francis weekend, we will participate in ecumenical events celebrating "Whales to Worms and Everything in Between." Visit stpetersparish.org/seasonofcreation for more info!

On Friday, October 4 at 7:00 p.m., we will screen "The Last of the Right Whales" in Maxwell Hall at Memorial United Methodist Church (50 N. 6th Street.) Childcare will be available if requested by October 2. Barb Zoodsma, a retired coordinator for Right Whale Recovery from NOAA, is featured.

On Saturday, October 5 at 10:00 a.m. in Burns Hall at St. Peter's we will offer a free workshop on composting. The workshop will include a brief introduction to vermicomposting (worms) and an in-depth presentation on Bokashi, a particular method of composting. The workshop facilitator is Tiffany Bess, founder of Apple Rabbit Compost in Jacksonville. Please register for the workshop by October 2.

The Blessing of the Animals will be our final event on Sunday, October 6 at 2:00 p.m. We will have the blessing on the corner of 9th Street and Atlantic Avenue due to recent high levels of rain water. Bring your favorite furry, scaly, and feathery friends (leashed/crated), a chair to sit on, and a donation for the Nassau Humane Society.

EYC Teddy Bear Drive

Today is the final day that EYC is collecting stuffed animals for Wolfson Children's Hospital. Our goal is 250 stuffed animals! They must be both NEW and have soft eyes and buttons. All animals can be dropped off at the collection points in the Wood Youth Center or Burns Hall! You can track our progress on the Bear-o-meter in Burns Hall.

181st Diocesan Convention

Our parish was well represented by our incredible youth delegates the weekend of September 20. In addition, our very own Deacon Annette Sines was elected to Diocesan Council. To read more about Andrew Lasserre (senior) and Lee Miniea's (sophomore) contributions, please see your Key News email for a detailed letter.

The Foundation Feature

You may be curious to know who is included in the 1858 Society. This Society includes anyone who charitably invests in the Foundation for St. Peters. Investments consist of one-time gifts, scheduled payments, and/or a promise to remember the Foundation in your estate plan. We invite anyone who loves St. Peters and has a passion for the preservation and perpetuation of the campus, cemetery, and St. Peter's ministries to join the 1858 Society.

Society Members can be recognized by the blue ribbon attached to their regular name tag worn during church services. Please email foundation@stpetersparish.org with any questions.
