ANNOUNCEMENTS

EVERY WEDNESDAY IN MARCH, we will be marking the season of Lent with our annual soup suppers and Lenten class. At 5:30 p.m. we will begin with soup supper in Burns Hall, followed by the program at 6:00 p.m., and closing with compline prayer. Inspired by the five senses, "Lent Sense" will be a sensory class, that helps us to express, connect, and open ourselves to what God is teaching us through Lent. Join us for this meaningful program taught by our clergy and staff.

LENTEN ECUMENICAL SERVICES WEDNESDAYS IN LENT St. Peter's is participating with our ecumenical partners in worship services at noon on Wednesdays in Lent. The churches will take turns hosting the service and clergy from the other churches will preach. St. Peter's will be hosting the service on March 29 at noon. Please take note of the time change! The service will be at noon, not 12:10 p.m. On the remaining Wednesdays in Lent—March 22, 29 and April 5, we will not have a noon service at St. Peter's so that our congregation may attend the services at the other hosting churches. This Wednesday, March 22, the service will be at First Presbyterian Church with The Rev. Grenardo Felix.

LENTEN ART INSTALLATION Looking for a way to mindfully reflect on the deeper meaning of Lent? Every Sunday during Lent, Room 201 will be open to visit and enjoy our second annual Lenten Art Installation. This year's special installation features a collection from 'A Sanctified Art' (link: <https://sanctifiedart.org>) by various artists around the theme of "Seeking: Honest Questions for Deeper Faith." Reflect on art and questions to engage your senses as we usher embark on this Lenten season. For more information about the install, please contact Rachel Davis.

THE MEN'S BIBLE STUDY is studying Romans on Tuesdays, at 7:45 a.m. in Kennard Library. Father Joe will kick off the study with an overview of this fascinating and important book of the Bible. Come join us!

IT'S SPRING CLEAN TIME IN CHILDREN'S CHAPEL! Our children's space needs a thorough clean every year so get your gloves on and join us today after the 9:00 a.m. service on Sunday to get the children's space clean and sparkling for the kids to enjoy for the coming year.
